Preface

Acknowledgement

Any research needs indepth study of the facts and deep analysis. There are points of time when the researcher finds himself biased and without results and conclusion. In such crucial moments, I need personal touch, moral support, motivation and inspiration. This is a hard fact that no person without such support would be able in any manner to complete a standard research work and to reach at a justified conclusion.

In the same manner, I have been supported in different senses by each and every person around me. I am fortunate enough in this way.

Further, I would like to express profound gratitude to my research supervisor, Name, (Designation) - Deptt. of, OPJS University, Churu, Rajasthan for his consistent, gracious and untiring guidance for completion of this thesis. He was kind enough in guiding me at every stage and extended all possible help to me.

Lastly I apologize for any unseen mistake, any slip of pen and pray to Almighty God that thou bless me and forgive me for any mistakes of mine done knowingly or unknowingly.
